Another Arrival.

The Telegraph yesterday afternoon brought us a basef despatch, announcing the arrival of the Stermenip Atlantic, with four Days' later dates from Europe. Breadstuffs continue firm and quotations show another advance. The probability of a general War is still great. We were in hopes of receiving fuller details of the Attantic's news before we went to press last night, but the Telegraph communication was interrupt ed at some point East of Clereland.

FROM OUR NEW YORK CORRES-PONDENT.

New York, Jan. 20. Notwithstanding occasional flurries of anow, we are in the midst of the January thaw, very much to the delight of the house builders, masons and hod-men, and equally to the disappointment of hack sleigh owners and the dilatory residents of the country, who let slip the fine ice made in December, without filling their ice-houses. Our streets are dirty and sloppy, but the ring of the trowel renders them cheerful, and of the hammer and the saw. Indeed, building is going on with almost as much regularity and extent, as in milder sensons of the year. With all the enormous annual accessions to our houses and warehouses, rents do not fall—on the contrary, for the larger and more expensive watchouses, now in process of construction, the rents saked, and obtained too, soem almost fabulous. A very serious enquiry is atout to be made, under the auspices of the Legislature, by a scientific commission, as to the effect, past, present and probable, on the depth of the gater in our harbor, of the prodigious invasion upon the bed of the two rivers that wash our city, by streets and stores, from either side of both. Certain it is that the space covered with water for merly has been so seriously restricted and curtailed, as to have produced material changes in the flow and the velocity of the tide and of the deposits from time to time made by them. Between given points in the City of New York and the opposite City of Brooklyn, the East River has been reduced in width, within the memory of living man, almost one half ! and the process is still goleg on I remember to have seen big slips float where now is solid earth and as solid structures in masonry. In the North River too, from the Jersey shore and from our own, piers are annually prolonged into the stream, so as now to reach hundreds of yards beyond the water line of half a century ago. The fear is that this invasion, prompted by private avarice and manifestly at variance with the public good. may go on, if not now checked, until the currents of the river become swift as will races and bars and sandtanks be created in the eddies, which will reader our harbor, now so safe, capacious and acressible, dangerous and for larger vessels ampracticable. The whole country has an interest in the question, equally with New York, for by any serious injury to our harbor-now the seat and centre of a world's commerce-all would be more, or less damaged, the' none so immediately and severely as our city itself. The administration at Washington, if it were as vigilant to advance the public interests, as it is to centrol and regulate the distribution of " the spoils," should take this matter in hand—for the Commerce with foreign nations and between the States, of which the exclusive regulation belongs to Congress, is essentially concerned in the proper condition of the harbor of New York. But New York knows too much now of the inefficiency and unreliableness of the very ordinary man she so much contributed to place in the Presidential Chair, to look with hope or expectation to him, and she will therefore help herself-I trust both wisely and promp'ly. Our hearts and sympathies are still under the influence of the sad calamity and glorious rescue connected with the San Francisco. Regrets and mourning for the lost mingle with sympathy in the fortitude and sufferings of the saved and admiration and gratitude for those, who so perseseringly and nobly perilled overything to rescue shipwrecked brothers, and especially for the galhaut foreigner-Capt. Ormighton, of the English ship Three Bells. A substantial testimonial of gratitude will be furnished by our community; but Congress must do its part generously—not to its own soldiers alone, altho' to them the most liberal aid should be extended—but to the rescuers, whether under our own, or a foreign flag. We must let all men understand, that a service rendered to our people anywhere will ulways be largely and liberally acknowledged and rewarded by the people's rulers.

From Europe the accounts seem as uncertain as ever, and I suppose unavoidably so, for it would be impossible for any man to conjecture with reasonable probability, the course which things are to take there. Lord PALMERSTON'S return to the Ministry in England, and the apparently growing tendency of Louis Napoleon to more significant interference in behalf of Turkey, or tather against Russia, would seem to indicate a settled purpose to curb the pretensions of the Czar-who, on his part, has shown no disposition whatever to fall back from the Danubian provinces, or to relinquish his designs upon Constantinople. Kossuth is said to have been invited by the Sultan to his Capital-if so, and money and arms can be furnished him, he could money and arms can be furnished him, he could make such a force before long in Poland and Hungary, as would effectually divert both Russia and Austria from aggression to defence. Wanted-Very Much.—We are greatly in med of a permanently established daily mell lice from Milwaukee to this place. Under the present arrangement the mail comes every day to Oak Grove, eight miles from here, and every wher day goes on to Fond du Lac, through Brave Dara, Fax Lake and Wanpun. The business of these offices is very extensive, supplying, as they do, the most fertile portion of our State, including Dodge, Colambia, Marquetto and Fond du Lac Countes, together with a great portion of the Pinery region, generally requiring some half dozen well stuffed suchs to contain the matter which isaves this office, being intersected here by the mail from the south west; via Madison and Colambias, and we insist that the business on this line entities us to a daily mail.—Beaver Dam Republican, 25th sine.

We cordially second the Republicans, suggestion: A Daily Mail is greatly needed along the route named; and in addition to the reasons mencioued by the Republican may be cited the fact, that mail service pays in Wisconsin, which is more than can be said for many of the States that enjoy greater favors in this line from the P. O. Department than we do. Will not our Senators and Representatives in Congress look into the matter, and see that Wisconsin is fairly and fully supplied in this particular?

Lumber Seizures and Black Mail.

The Morning News of yestenday copies a paragraph from the Fond du Lac Herald, pointing o the fact that the Loco Foco papers, which ve semently denounced the seizures of Lumber by whig officials under President FILLMORE's administration, are either eilent or acquiescing in the same operations, now that the fish comes into Democratic nets, and comments thercon as fol-

"Locofoco papers" did not complain that timer was seized by Mr. Pillmore's officials, but not did complain of their black mail levies upon the lumbermen. Some of these officials compared with lumbermen, permitting them to steal for a certain price. We have the facts to prove this assertion and offered to prove it, in answer to a similar charge in the Sentinela long time since, but that paper and Whig papers generally have since been reasonably discreet when speaking of this subject. speaking of this subject.

If the News ever made such an offer, we either overlooked, or have forgotten it. But "better late than never." We call upon the News to produce its "facts" and prove, if it can, the assertion thus confidently made. Let us know who the men arc, be they Whigs or Democrats, who have preyed upon the Lumbermen, not from a sense of duty, but to line their own pockets. Give us the names of the Government "officials," whether under the past or present Administration, who have "compounded with Lumbermen, permitting them to steal for a certain price."

If, as the News charges, such abuse of authority, such fraud upon both Government and people, has been, or is practised, the sooner the facts are proclaimed and the offenders dealt with as they serve, the better for the ends of justice and the authority of law. We too have heard that thous. ands and tens of thousands of dollars, in the shape of "commutation money," or black mail have been paid to "officials" under Mr. Pience's administration, and we desire to know the truth and the whole truth in the matter. So call your witnesses, neighbour!

After remarking upon the numerous errors in the reports sent in, the Superindent proceeds to speak of the School Fund. This fund consists;
1st. Of the proceeds of the sale of the 1823 sixteenth-sections in the state, amounting to about 1,000,000 acres of land.
2d. of the proceeds of the 500,000 acres granted by Congress to the State.

Besides the above, there may be an addition from the sale of swamp lands. The Superintendent thinks that nearly $5,000,000 will ultimately be realized from the fund. The following is a statement of the school fund at the present time:

A lonely broken gleam;
No present, but a fragment, Ned,
Of some wild, shapeless dream!
No noble aims, no proud resolves—
No aspirations high;
No pride of manhood on thy brow,
No soul-light in thine oye!

Ahl little thought those comrades then,
When, beat thy heart so high;
E'enin thy life-time, Ned, how low
That manly head would lie!
And little dreamed flory thee, poor Ned,
That voice should ever be
Attuned to pireous whisporings
For ancering charity!

For cherity? paor pennies. Ned;
(Alas! that it should be;)
Pennies; fo bux, sill more and more,
Of wretched misery!
Ponnies to buy a hopeless death—
A friendless, nameless tomb!
Pennies to purchase feer and thame
In the dread day of doom!

No drunkard should defile?

No drunkard should defile?
Oh they who caused this moureful fall—
Who wrought this ruin, Ned—
The curse of an all-righterous Herren
Be on their guilty head!
And thrice accursed be the hand
That dones to give thee, now,
Fiend fires, to burn the last faint trace
Of manhood from thy brow!

The Superintendent has visited the schools in 23 counties during the past year, and has attended and held many temporary Normal Schools, with much benefit. He recommends that a fund be placed at the disposal of the Superintendent for bolding such schools; and also the establishment of a State Normal School. The Union School System in large towns is recommended, on the score of economy and efficiency; and the division of districts is deprecated, where they are no more than 1½ miles from centre to outer limit. The establishment of County High Schools is urged again. #### ARRIVAL OF THE ATLANTIC BREADSTUFFS FIRM!

New York, Jan. 27. The Atlantic has arrived. Breadstuffs firm. LIVERPOOL MARKET.-Flour, 44s.a45s .-- Wheat 12xx12s. 6d. sterling. Corn, 50sa52s. Money stringent—Consols declined one quarter. War A. & W.

Mil. and Mins. R. M. -Muscoda.

This road, about which so little is known, is now completed within three hours' drive of the State Capitol. In a month or two it will be finised to the Capitol, and in the course of next summer, to the Wisconsin river.

The road will doubtless (or rather without a doubt,) be finished to the Wisconsin river next summer, when almost the full advantages of a railroad connexion with the Lakes and the East will be enjoyed by farners along the Wisconsin river, and within half a day's drive of it. Small steamers, adapted to the Wisconsin river trade, will ply in droves, and arrangements will be made at every landing on the Wisconsin, to receive and forward freight for the railroad at Areas.

Arena.

The chief trading point on the south side of the Wisconsin river, between Arena and the mouth, will be at Muscoda. No other place has made arrangements, or can, in time to do anything. Se that Muscoda will do a flue monapolizing business for a few months after the railroad is finished to the Wisconsin. That village has is finished to the Wisconsin. That village has more than ordinary advantages for trade,—advantages that are not now seen nor understood, even by those who reside there, and dream of the golden fleece growing elsewhere on a barren shore. Muscoda, to be known and developed, must go to work and make good roads—towards Fennimore, Highland, and in several other directions. Till Muscoda has roads the country will not trade there. Nature has almost made half-a dozen roads, and the outlay will be precious little to make them good enough to transport grain and lumber upon' to and from the back settlements.—Grant Co. Heraid.

BELOIT AND MADISON RAILEDAD.—The annual macting of the Stockholders of the Beloit and Madison Railroad Company was held at Beloit Wednesday, Jan. 18th. The following persons Wednesday, Jan. 18th. Prof Wood—Dear Sir : Since you request me to give you a statement of the effects of your woulderful feedback in upon me, I cheen fully state, in reply, that I have now used three bottles of fict and although my hair when I commenced the new was a silvery white (my ago being slary-fine) in one month's time it had resumed perceively too organt color, and so perfect that my friends all thought House of worth years younger than usual, and screedy knew what o mile of what they considered a perfect miracle, until Lindown, ditum it was but the result of an in endoin of yours called Hair Hestortive. I will also state that was much trouved with dead-ruff and tiching, particularly when in persyl-ration; but it only required three or four applications to remove all landruff and itching, and althoughiny hair had fallen off until I was somewhat bild, i now have as fine a head of hair, both in color, sof ness and later, as I had when but a youth, and quite as abundand. It is perport or me to state that I commenced it use in August Inc., and used none since January. I have no doubt therefore, but what the change is a permanent one; I can therefore recommend it as the most wonderful discovery of the are in which we live.

[From the Boston Bec.]

The Eiter said, Dec. 22d: "Dr. Econand's colobrated German Bitters, for the curre of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Merrous Debility, is deserved; one of the most popular medicines of the day. Those Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our ellow says he has himself received an eirectual and permanent entre of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are contineed that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly rains strongth and vigor, a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in tasts and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomach with vider, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the addicted we advise their use."
